Release and Waiver of Liability

While serious injuries are relatively infrequent, basketball is an intense, competitive sport. We understand that participation in this sports carries with it the risk of potential injury to the participants. As a team coach of the team players, I do understand and accept the risk of such injuries. We, therefore, waive and release the WBDA, it's players, board members, employees, volunteers, and coaches from any and all claim of liability which must arise out of, or be related to our team's participation, and/or, travel during the WBDA Youth Basketball Tournament.
